the Unstarred Question NO. 673 on 28.11.1991, before the Government could notify the prices of ceiling packs, on the basis of reduced prices of bulk drugs, there was change in the exchange rate of rupee against major foreign currencies. As a result, prices of nine out of eleven bulk drugs were revised upwards. In four cases, the revised prices were more than the pre-revised prices. The prices of ceiling packs of formulations, based on other bulk drugs, were reduced wherever necessary, based on the prevailing packaging material ceilings and norms for conversion/packing charges.

Calcutta High Court's decision in favour of M/s. Carews

2632. SHRIMATI KAILASHPATI: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to refer to the answer to Unstarred Question 3084 given in the Rajya Sabha on 6th August, 1992 and state:

(a) whether it is a fact that his Ministry have lost case against M/s. Carews in the Calcutta High Court for non-follow up of the matter;

(b) what is the judgement of the High Court and what action has been taken against the judgement;

(c) whether it is a fact that this company belongs to Mullaya Group;

(d) if so, what are the reasons for not taking any action for operating without permission under I (D and R) Act and also marketing other products without price approval; and

(e) what are the names of such products and since when each is being marketed?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF CHEMICALS AND FERTILIZERS (SHRI CHINTA MOHAN): (a) and (b) The Hon'ble Calcutta High Court in the judgement dated 26th June, 1992 has directed the Government to accord necessary exemption to the petitioner's product 'Combiflam' as per Notification No. S.O. 719 (E) dated 21.7.1988. Government filed stay petition/memorandum of appeal against the above judgement. Though a copy of the judgement has not been received so far, it is learnt that the Order dated 26.6.1992 has been stayed by the Division Bench of the Calcutta High Court.
